

ROGER ERRERA

- Senior member (Conseiller d'État) of the French Conseil d'État.
- Former member, UN Human Rights Committee.
- Former member, French Conseil supérieur de la magistrature.
- Visiting Professor, Department of Legal Studies, Central European University, Budapest .

IN FRANCE

- Conseil d'État

Until 2001, member of its judicial division (judicial review of administrative action) and of one of the consultative divisions.

In the latter capacity, participation to the preparation, discussion and drafting of bills and regulations on such areas as

- o judicial reform
- o aliens and refugee law
- o criminal procedure
- o civil liberties.

- Conseil supérieur de la magistrature

From 1998 to 2002, participation to the two activities on this body:

- o to vet judicial appointments
- o to sit as a Board of discipline for the judiciary.

- École nationale de la magistrature (the State School where members of the judiciary are trained)

Member of the Board, 1988-1996.

1991-2006 : direction of a training session on aliens law in France.

- École nationale supérieure de la police (the State School where the higher cadres of the national police are trained)

1988-1991 : Chairman of the Board.

INTERNATIONAL ACTIVITIES

- In 2007 and 2003, participation, in Poland, to seminars on refugee law for Polish judges organized by the International Association of Refugee Law Judges, the UNHCR and the Warsaw Regional Administrative Court.
- Since 1994, Visiting Professor, Department of Legal Studies, Central European University, Budapest. Courses on Free speech and on judicial review of administrative action.
- Since 1990, activity as an expert or a consultant of the Council of Europe, the European Commission and OECD in legal and judicial matters and human rights.

Countries visited : Estonia, Latvia, Macedonia, Serbia, Russia, Czech Republic.

- 1987-1988 : Senior Research Scholar, Institute of Advanced Legal Studies, London.
- 1983-1984 : Visiting Professor, Faculty of Laws, University College, London.
- 1982-1985 : member of the UN Human Rights Committee.
- 1975-1976 : German Marshall Fund Fellow, Cambridge (Mass.).

- Participation to bilateral judicial exchanges:

- France – Britain :

- 1986 – 2001 : participation to the periodic exchanges between the Conseil d'État and members of the House of Lords and of the High Court specializing in judicial review taking place in London and Paris. Presentation of written reports.

- France – Israel

- 1995-2004 : participation to the periodic exchanges between the Conseil d'État, the Cour de cassation and the Israeli Supreme Court taking place in Paris and Jerusalem. Presentation of written reports.
- From 1988 on in Jerusalem, seminars on French public law and judicial review of administrative action for Israeli judges, following an invitation of the Sussmann Institute for the training of judges of judges.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Varied articles and essays on civil rights, EU law, the ECHR, aliens and refugee law, freedom of speech, freedom of religion and judicial review published in French, English, Russian, Hungarian and Czech.

Areas of specialization

- Preparation and drafting of legal norms.
- Justice and judicial institutions:
 - o recruitment and training of judges;
 - o evaluation;
 - o ethics;
 - o accountability.
- EU law
- European Convention on Human Rights
- Freedom of speech
- Freedom of religion
- Judicial review of administrative action
- Criminal procedure
- Aliens and refugee law
- The relationship between history, memory and law.